Kari focuses her practice in civil litigation, primarily on insurance coverage, business litigation and products liability issues. She has extensive insurance coverage and litigation experience, and has represented clients in a variety of general litigation matters, including construction and commercial truck claims.

Kari is admitted to practice in Minnesota state and federal courts, as well as the state and federal courts in Wisconsin.

She received her J.D. in 2002 from William Mitchell College of Law and her B.A. from the University of Minnesota in 1996. She is currently a member of the Minnesota State Bar Association, Ramsey County Bar Association and the International Association of Arson Investigators.

In her free time, Kari likes gardening, cooking, watching basketball and spending time with her family.
