Peter Tiede concentrates his practice in business law, real estate, and local government, regularly representing a number of community banks, credit unions, closely held businesses and small governments in Minnesota, North Dakota, and Wisconsin.

Clients often seek Peter's more than 17 years of legal experience when they need guidance in handling financial transactions, real estate transactions, general matters of governance, succession planning, and corporate matters. Peter also has an extensive background in litigation, particularly in the areas of zoning and land use. He has been selected for inclusion in Minnesota Super Lawyers®.

He is admitted to practice in Minnesota State, federal and bankruptcy courts, the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin, U.S. District Court for the Central District of Illinois, and the U.S. Tax Court. Peter is co-chair of the Real Estate Section of the Ramsey County Bar Association (RCBA), and a member of the Minnesota and State of Wisconsin bar associations.

Peter has lectured and spoken extensively on land use and related issues, as well as on matters of local government law. He has also authored a number of articles for the Minnesota Association of Townships, and is co-author of The Practical Guide to the 60 Day Rule, a manual written for local government officials on Minnesota Statute §15.99 compliance.

Peter received his J.D., cum laude, from the William Mitchell College of Law and his B.A. from Hamline University. He joined Murnane Brandt in 1994.

In the community, he previously served on the board of directors for Urban Homeworks, a local housing organization that serves the needs of low-income families. He enjoys outdoor activities of all kinds with his four children.
